Finishing the season in equal third position on 70 points each, the Walcha Rams will face tough opposition when they run onto the paddock against Narrabri Blue Boars this Saturday afternoon in the Elimination Final of the Central North Rugby competition. "We have beaten Narrabri twice this season, but only in the last few minutes of the last game, so it will be a pretty tough game," coach Barry Hoy said.

It will be a big day of rugby with five games scheduled here at Walcha Oval, commencing at 11.00am.

11:00am	Under 19s Narrabri vs Gunnedah
12:30pm	Womens 7s Gunnedah vs Score
12:55pm	Reserve Grade Inverell vs Pirates
2:35pm	Womens 7s Narrabri vs 12.30pm winner
3:00pm	First Grade Walcha vs Narrabri

Walcha Council are offering free tickets for entry to the ground, and they are hoping the community will take this opportunity to deck themselves out in red and white to cheer the Rams home to victory. Tickets are available to cut out on Page 12 of The Advocate this week and can be presented at the gate for free entry. "We are hoping it will give the community a chance to get together and something to cheer about," Councillor Clint Lyon said.

"We will have Rams merchandise available for sale on the ground, including jumpers, hats, beanies and stubby holders," President Andrew Crawford said.

The kiosk will be operating throughout the day, as well as a BBQ and can van. "It will also be a big night at the club house after the game with the ladies providing a delicious meal," Andrew said.

Pirates are minor premiers and club champions yet again and will contest the finals in all grades. Moree will travel to the Pirates Cave next weekend to play the Buccaneers for Grand Final hosting rights.

And the final word from the coach "It won't be easy, but the boys are keen and ready to go!"
